

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact

207-775-0026 | communications@preblestreet.org

New Chief Operations Officer at Preble Street

PORTLAND, ME — Preble Street, a human service agency with 13 programs operating throughout the state of Maine, has named Daniel McCarthy as its new Chief Operations Officer.

McCarthy, of Falmouth, most recently served as Senior Vice President, Chief Financial Officer & Treasurer at Covenant House International in New York City.

"Dan has years of experience overseeing the Finance, Human Resources, Information Technology, and Facilities Departments at Covenant House, an international nonprofit that works with youth experiencing homelessness," said Executive Director Mark Swann. "We are thrilled to have him join our team."

As the Chief Operations Officer at Preble Street, McCarthy serves on the leadership team and oversees the organization's administrative and operational infrastructure.

Preble Street is a nonprofit human service agency serving the most vulnerable people in Maine since 1975 through innovative, best-practice, client-centered programs. In addition to the largest direct service emergency food program in northern New England, Preble Street operates low-barrier programs throughout Maine providing 24/365 services for individuals and families, including homeless youth, women, veterans, and survivors of human trafficking, driven by its mission to meet urgent needs, empower people to move beyond the crises in their lives, and advocate for solutions to homelessness, hunger, and poverty. PrebleStreet.org*

###