

Food Programs Director

Preble Street's Food Programs help meet the basic nutritional needs of our community members through its mobile food services, food pantry, and soup kitchens, providing people experiencing homelessness and food insecurity with access to nourishing food. On pace to provide 1,000,000 meals this year, Preble Street is working diligently to meet our community's increasing needs, and is seeking an experienced food services professional to manage our Food Programs and lead its dedicated team.

If you have food service management experience and would like to use your skills to help end hunger and homelessness, please consider this opportunity to become a full-time member of Preble Street's management team.

Job Requirements

Some of the requirements of the position include the following:

- Demonstrated ability to successfully manage the full scope of large-scale food service operations, with considerable knowledge of food sourcing and preparation, menu planning, and staff scheduling.
- Commitment to the Preble Street mission, and an understanding of homelessness, hunger, food insecurity, and social and economic justice.
- Strong leadership and management skills.
- Undergraduate or graduate degree in a related field, and significant experience in food service operations and management, with nonprofit experience preferred, or comparable combination of education and experience.
- ServSafe Certification (or ability to become ServSafe certified).
- Ability to drive a small cargo truck, with a valid driver's license and an acceptable motor vehicle record.

Compensation and Benefits

This is full-time position, offering a competitive salary and the following benefits:

- Medical insurance w/100% employer paid option
- Dental insurance w/100% employer paid option
- Vision insurance
- Employer Paid Life, STD, and LTD insurance
- 403(b) retirement plan w/ employer match
