

Huston Commons Temporary Part Time Caseworker (1st Shift)

Preble Street has a temporary part-time 1st shift Caseworker position available at Huston Commons, our newest Housing First program located near Morrill's Corner. Housing First residential programs are open 365 days a year; Huston Commons is designed to meet the needs of 30 men and women who have experienced chronic homelessness. This position will work as a member of the Residential Services team, and will work primarily at Huston Commons; however, the Caseworker may also occasionally work within the other Residential Services Programs.

- The schedule for this position is Friday & Saturday 8:00am - 4:30pm
- This position reports directly to the Huston Commons 1st Shift Supervisor.
- The primary role of this position is to build relationships with clients, provide casework services, provide program coverage, maintain client safety, monitor the security of the building, provide crisis intervention and support, and assist clients in overcoming barriers to stable housing.
- In addition, the caseworkers are responsible for supporting program documentation needs, participating in programming, and coordinating services and support across all Huston Commons shifts.

Requirements

Candidates for this position must have a positive regard for individuals accessing services for homelessness and poverty; strong communication skills; familiarity with community services; an understanding of low-barrier service challenges; the ability to establish boundaries and set limits with a diverse population; and the ability to work as part of a team.

Compensation

This position offers competitive pay at a rate of $16.25 per hour.
